SAWING A WOMAN IN HALF

A classic piece of MAGIC turned upside down. Everyone thinks if you can see behind the MAGIC you would know the secret. What happens when you surround the MAGIC with the audience???? You get Mark Bennick, "Sawing a Woman in Half". Mark's assistant is strapped by her feet and neck. Members of the audience hold the straps and surround the table. Two swords and two blades then pass through her body. She is then separated into two halves!
